

Inter-Graduate School Program for Sustainable Development and Survivable Societies

Interdisciplinary Seminar (1 session course)
【 # 38-(1)】

Global Understanding for Global Sustainability

By: Prof. Dr. Benno Werlen
(Executive Director, The International Year of Global Understanding)

Date: 2 December 2016, 13:30-15:00

Venue: Shishukan Hall (HIGASHI ICHIJOKAN, basement floor)

<Summary>

This seminar is regarded as an interdisciplinary seminar (a 1-session course*). It provides audience with an opportunity to know what is The International Year of Global Understanding (IYGU) and some ideas for global sustainability.

Prof. Dr. Benno Werlen is invited by Hiroshima University as a keynote speaker of the 4th TAOYAKA Program International Symposium on On-site Education for Global Understanding: Graduate School Programs and IYGU2016. After the Symposium, he has a chance to visit Kyoto University and give the same keynote lecture “Global Understanding for Global Sustainability” as in the TAOYAKA Symposium.

This Seminar is open to attract more audience in Kyoto University. Not only GSS students but also other students, professors and PstDocs are very welcome.

<Obligation of attendee> (for program GSS students)

GSS students should register their names at the seminar room (Shishukan-Hall) to confirm their attendance.